

Arts in CT International Cultural Fusion Arts Festival Terms and Conditions

1. Application and Fees: Vendors need to complete an application form and pay the required fees. The fee structure may vary based on the type of vendor (e.g., food, crafts, non-profit) and the size and location of the booth. Payments are typically required in advance to secure a spot.
2. Trading Hours: Vendors are generally allowed to operate during the festival's designated hours. For the Arts in CT International Cultural Fusion Arts Festival, these hours are from 11:00 AM to 5:00 PM, though specific hours will be provided by the organizers for setup and takedown.
3. Documentation: Vendors must provide necessary documentation, which includes but is not limited to:
 - Public Liability Insurance with a coverage of at least $1 million.
 - Health and Safety compliance documents if applicable.
 - Proof of any relevant permits or licenses required by local authorities
4. Booth Setup and Maintenance: Vendors are responsible for setting up and maintaining their booths. This includes ensuring that the area is kept clean and free of hazards. Vendors must also comply with the specific setup and takedown times provided by the organizers to ensure smooth operations and minimal disruptions.
5. Product Restrictions: Certain items may be prohibited from sale at the festival. Vendors should check the list of prohibited items provided by the festival organizers to ensure compliance. This often includes items like alcohol, tobacco, and any illegal substances
6. Payment and Refunds: Fees are non-refundable unless the event is canceled by the organizers. In some cases, a portion of the fee might be refunded if a vendor cancels before a specified date, but this is at the discretion of the organizers.
7. Compliance with Laws: Vendors must comply with all local, state, and federal laws while participating in the festival. This includes health and safety regulations, as well as any specific festival rules.
